Stockholm, January 17, O. S.

YESTERDAY the Ceremony of Baptizing the new born Prince was perform'd at the Caſtle by the Archbiſhop of Upſal. His Godfathers were the King of Sweden and the King of Pruſſia, and his Godmothers the Empreſs of Ruſſia, the Queen Mother of Pruſſia, and the Princeſs of Holſtein, Mother to the Prince Succeſſor. Guſtavus is the Name given to this young Prince. The King, Prince Succeſſor, Senate, Heads of Colleges, all the great Officers of the Crown, and the Foreign Miniſters, were preſent: In the Evening there was a great Entertainment at Court, and in Town moſt of the Houſes were illuminated. Our Letters from Gottenburg are ſtill ſilent as to the Time of the Departure of the Swediſh Officers there; and the Report is general that they are all to come back again. Theſe Gentlemen on their Arrival at Gottenburg, found the Inhabitants of that Place ſo incenſed againſt them, on Account of the Errand they were going upon, that for Fear of any Inſult they keep in a Body as much as poſſible, and never ſtir out but in large Parties.

Berlin, Jan. 22. The Articles of both Treaties of Peace, Reconciliation and Friendſhip, lately concluded at Dreſden, were publiſhed and communicated to all the Foreign Miniſters on the 19th Inſtant. On the 18th the Duke of Weiſſenfels's Aid de Camp, Lieut. Colonel Vizthum, and a Captain of the Regiment of Gotha, M. Benningſen, arrived here from Dreſden, whither they returned on the 20th; and the ſame Day 979 Saxon Priſoners were eſcorted to Bareuth in order to be releaſed according to the 4th Article of the afore-mentioned Treaty. They conſiſt chiefly of thoſe who were taken at the Action at Hennerſtorff and the Surrender of Gorlitz, and there are ſtill near 4000 Priſoners in Town here.

Berlin, Feb. 1, N. S. The King of Pruſſia came to Town Yeſterday at half an Hour after Eleven in the Morning, and will return to Potzdam on the 15th Inſtant. He propoſes to ſet out for Pyrmont in the Month of May. Baron Bulow, the Saxon Miniſter, who arrived here on the 28th paſt, was preſented, immediately after the King's Arrival, to his firſt Audience. He deliver'd his new Credential Letters, and met with a very gracious Reception. On the 28th paſt General Polentz, to whom the Regiment of the late General Truchſes was given, died at Meiſſen of the Wounds he received at the Battle near Dreſden.

Berlin, Feb. 8, N. S. His Pruſſian Majeſty continues here in good Health. M. Klinggraff ſet out on Sunday laſt for Dreſden, where he is to reſide for the Future. After the King of Pruſſia's Departure for Potſdam, which is fixed for the 15th Inſtant, the Winter Diverſions are to end.

Copenhagen, Feb. 5, N. S. The King of Denmark, who has reſted very little for ſeveral Nights of late, was more out of Order Yeſterday, than he has been at any Time yet; and for that Reaſon the Council was omitted: But laſt Night his Majeſty ſlept pretty well, and finds himſelf To-Day much better.

Willemſtadt, Feb. 8, N. S. Upon the 3d Inſtant the Heſſian Huſſars were embarked. On the 4th, the Regiment of Grenadiers, 5th, Prince Maximilian's Regiment, 6th, Lieutenat General Mansbach's, } and their Horſes. 7th, ſix Companies of the Guards. In the Night of the 6th it blew ſo hard, and the Tide was ſo high, that the Platform on the Head was waſhed away, and all Yeſterday Morning was ſpent in Repairing it. It being ſo late before we began to embark again, only ſix Companies could be got on board with the Horſes of General Wolfe's Regiment, and twenty-five belonging to the Artillery. If the Weather had continued moderate, this Day would have compleated the Regiment of Guards, and we ſhould have embarked Donop's Regiment; but in the Night the Wind ſprung up at Eaſt, and blew exceſſively hard with heavy Snow, which continues, ſo that all ſtands ſtill. If a Froſt ſhould ſucceed, the Snow will occaſion ſo much Ice, that it will greatly diſconcert the Embarkation, and the Troops already embarked, be obliged to put to Sea. The Men of War, Yachts and Tranſports were ſeen off the Hender a few Days ago, and all except the Yachts were obliged to go off the Coaſt again. They are now got in near Brewer's Haven, to the Weſtward of Goree.

Willemſtadt, Feb. 10. Captain Barker, on board his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Gibraltar Man of War, and two others, arrived at Helvoet Yeſterday, with 23 Tranſports from England. Prince Frederick of Heſſe, and the Earl of Craufurd, are arrived here from Antwerp, in order to embark with the Heſſian Troops, which are commanded by his Highneſs.

Willemſtadt, Feb. 15. The Fleet ſail'd Yeſterday Afternoon about Three o'Clock, and it is hoped will be near their deſtin'd Port by To-morrow Night or Thurſday Morning. The remaining Tranſports are all gone from before this Town to ſave themſelves from the Ice, ſo that the Embarkation of the Britiſh Cavalry is retarded.

Frankfort, Feb. 10. Baron Ramſwach, the Emperor's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the Congreſs of the Anterior Circles aſſembled here, ſet out out on the 8th Inſtant for Ulm, to be preſent at the Diet of the States of Swabia, to whom he is accredited; and he will be followed in a Day or two by Mr. Burriſh, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter to ſeveral Princes and Circles of the Empire, who returned hither Yeſterday from Bonn, the Reſidence of the Elector of Cologne. Baron Hagen ſupplies the Abſence of M. de Ramſwach, as Miniſter Prenipotentiary from their Imperial Majeſties to this Congreſs.

Hambourgh, Feb. 11, N. S. The new Imperial Miniſter Count Raab, who is accredited in that Quality to the Circle of Lower Saxony, came to Town Yeſterday, and was complimented this Morning on the Part of the Magiſtrates.

Antwerp, Feb. 10. The French continue round about Bruſſels, and block it up very cloſely, but the bad Weather has prevented their doing any Thing againſt the Town. They have made no Batteries as yet, but ſuch as ſeem to be to guard their Cantoonments, having erected only Three, of four ſmall Field Pieces each; one is on the Cauſeway to Antwerp, another on the Cours, and the third juſt by it. They are making Roads with Trees and Faſcines, but the Ground is ſo very marſhy, that they have been obliged to ſtop, and ſome of their Battering Cannon is at preſent ſtuck in the Ground, and they cannot move them. The Dutch Officer, who commanded the 250 Men in the Caſtle of Vilvoerden, ſurrendred it the 7th for Want of Proviſions, and he and his Garriſon are made Priſoners of War.

Antwerp, Feb. 14. We have Advices here, that Fitzjames's Regiment of Iriſh Cavalry, with their Horſe Furniture, and two Regiments of Iriſh Foot, were embarked at Oſtend in ſix large Tranſports for Scotland.

Antwerp, Feb. 14. A Perſon is juſt now arrived from Bruſſels, who brings Word, that the Garriſon continues to make the moſt gallant Defence, and had made a ſucceſsful Sally; that the French had been firing upon the Town ſince Saturday, and had attacked the cover'd Way Sword in Hand on the Side of Scharbeck, but had been repulſed with the Loſs of 180 Men. The Prince of Waldeck has juſt given Orders to the Garriſon of this Place, which conſiſts of Six Hanover and Four Dutch Battalions, and Seven Squadrons, to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march at a Moment's Warning, and that every Soldier be provided with 30 Charges.

Hague, Feb. 15, N. S. By an intercepted Letter from a French Engineer, employed before Bruſſels, to the commanding Officer of that Nation at Louvain, dated the 12th inſtant, it appears, that the Trenches were opened on the 9th inſtant. That on the 12th there were but Six Mortars, and Four pieces of Cannon in Battery. That the Garriſon kept an inceſſant Fire, having killed in that Space 180 Men of the Enemy; and had made ſeveral ſmall Sallies, which had retarded their Approaches. The ſaid Engineer adds, that from the Countenance and Behaviour of the Garriſon, and the bad Management of his own People, Bruſſels was like to give them much more Trouble than they had imagined; and he did not expect to carry the Place under Ten Days more. Letters from Mechlin of Yeſterday ſay, that the French had then got up a ſecond Battery of 14 Pieces, and that they had formed but one Attack between the Gate of Louvain and Scharbeck. As ſoon as the Auſtrians, who are ſaid to have paſt the Maeſe on the 10th inſtant, join Prince Waldeck, he hopes to be in a Condition to give the Beſiegers ſome Diſturbance.

Helvoetſluys, Feb. 14. The Embarkation of the Heſſian Infantry and Huſſars was finiſhed Yeſterday Morning, and the Tranſports are now all here ready to ſail with the firſt Opportunity, which it is hoped will be this Evening. His Highneſs the Prince of Heſſe is in good Health on board the Gibraltar Man of War.

Helvoetſluys, Feb. 15. This Morning at Six the Men of War, with the Tranſports having on board the Heſſian Troops, ſail'd from hence with a fair Wind for Scotland.

Whitehall, January 31, 1745-6.

Whereas it has been repreſented to the King, that on Wedneſday the 15th of this Inſtant January, about Eight o'Clock in the Evening, a Fire broke out in the Manſion Houſe of John Cheſhyre, Eſq; at Benington Place, in the County of Hertford, which in a few Hours Time entirely conſumed the ſame; and that there is great Reaſon to ſuſpect the ſaid Houſe was ſet on Fire by ſome malicious Perſon or Perſons unknown: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons who committed the ſaid Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they, or any one or more of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement for the making ſuch Diſcovery, I do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

J. Cheſhyre.

Whitehall, January 31, 1745.

Whereas it hath been repreſented to the King, That on Saturday the 25th Day of January Inſtant, about One o'Clock in the Morning, a Fire broke out at Beddington, in the County of Surrey, in a Stack Yard belonging to Mrs. Hillar, Tenant to Sir Nicholas Hackett Carew, Baronet, which in a few Hours entirely conſumed two Stacks of Corn, and four Ricks of Hay which were ſtanding therein, and that there is great Reaſon to ſuſpect the ſame were wilfully ſet on Fire by wicked and ill deſigning Perſons, with Intent not only to have conſumed the ſame, but alſo to have burnt down and deſtroyed her Dwelling-Houſe, Barns, Stables, Outhouſes, and four other large Stacks of Corn which ſtood near adjoining to the ſaid Stack Yard: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons who committed the ſaid Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any of the Offenders who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he, ſhe, or they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement for the making ſuch Diſcovery, the ſaid Sir Nicholas Hackett Carew does hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery, to be paid upon the Conviction of the ſaid Offenders, or any one or more of them.

Nicholas H. Carew.

Edinburgh, February 5.

THE Arch of Stirling Bridge, which had been broke down by General Blakeney's Order, was repaired by Six o'Clock Yeſterday Morning, with Timber (moſtly provided by the Rebels for the ſame Purpoſe,) and that Day the Army paſſed over the Bridge. The advanced Guard, conſiſting of the Argyllſhire Highlanders, and the Dragoons, went on to Creif, and the Foot were cantoon'd at and about Dumblain, where his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland lay laſt Night, and this Night his Royal Highneſs intended to lye at Creif, and to order his advanced Guard to take Poſſeſſion of Perth, where he intends to be To-morrow.

The Rebels, in their Retreat, or rather Flight, divided, Part of them, ſuppoſed to be the Clans with the Pretender's Son, took the Road by Taybridge, and it is ſaid, are to retire to Lochabar; the other Part of them, conſiſting of Lord Lewis Gordon's Men, the Remains of the French, Lord Ogilvie's Men, their Low Country Foot, with all their Horſe, got to Perth on Sunday. On Monday they began their March from thence further North, and on Tueſday they had all evacuated Perth, and are ſaid to have taken the Road to Montroſe, and to have carried along with them four Pieces of ſmall Braſs Cannon. Before the Rebels left Perth, they ſet at Liberty the Sailors of the Hazard Sloop, who were Priſoners there; but it is believed they carried Capt. Hill, the Commander of the ſaid Sloop, and the other Priſoners of Diſtinction they had at Stirling, along with them.

The Hazard Sloop ſailed from Montroſe on the 27th of laſt Month, and is ſuppoſed to be gone Northwards, to take up the Pretender's Son ſomewhere, poſſibly, about the Place he landed.

It is reported, that one or two more French Ships, have lately arrived, with Money and military Stores, at Peterhead; of which, and the Flight of the Rebels towards the Eaſt Coaſt, Intelligence has been ſent to Admiral Byng.

A Letter juſt received from General Hawley, dated this Morning at Dumblain, contains the following Advice; "We are juſt going to march, and ſhall "proceed to Day to Perth, or not, ac- "cording to what Intelligence we receive, "though I believe our Argyll High- "landers, and ſome Dragoons, are there "by this Time.
